Forecast For Strathclyde
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 1600 on Friday 25 Jun 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Patchy rain tonight and at first Saturday. Brightening up later.

This Evening and Tonight:
Some late bright or sunny spells near the coast but generally a cloudy night with some patchy rain around, this tending to die out again later in the night. Winds turning northeasterly and easing a little. Minimum temperature 7 deg C (45 deg F).

Saturday:
A few spots of rain at first, mainly east of Glasgow, otherwise a dry but rather cloudy morning. Becoming brighter, especially in the west through the afternoon. Northeasterly breeze easing. Maximum temperature 18 deg C (64 deg F).

Outlook for Sunday to Tuesday:
Plenty of dry weather with sunny spells through the coming days. It will become increasingly warm with mainly light winds.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.